GLOSSARY

Glossary

First-Time Freshman - enrolled freshmen who have not been enrolled previously at this level at any institution

New Undergraduate Transfer - transfer students who were previously enrolled at this degree level at another institution

New Graduate Students - students enrolled at the post-baccalaureate level who have not been previously enrolled at WSSU.

Headcount Enrollment counts students equally, regardless of the number of credit hours for which each student is enrolled.

FTE (full-time equivalent) Enrollment counts are based on the number of credit hours a student is taking in a given semester. Most full-time undergraduates are expected to take 12 semester hours, and most full-time graduate students are expected to take 9 credit hours each semester. UNC institutions use a stair-step method of determining FTE, so undergraduates taking 9, 10, or 11 hours are all considered to be three-quarters of an FTE, rather than 0.75, 0.83, and 0.92 FTE, respectively.

Academic Load. Most full-time undergraduates are expected to take 12 semester hours. Most full-time graduate students are expected to enroll for 9 credit hours each semester.
